(NEA Telephoto)
Mrs. Mae Reuther, anxious wife of UAW chief, soothes bullet-ridden labor leader as he rests at Grace Annex hospital, Detroit, after attempt on his life. Describing surprise attack of unknown gunmen through kitchen window of their home, Mrs. Reuther accuses "red enemies" as her husband's assailants. Although Reuther's condition was described as "good" following removal of slugs from right arm and chest, he is faced with possibility of losing use of arm.

Police Are Without Real Clues in Hunt for Reuther's Foe

Rewards for Capture of Man Who Shot Union Leader Now $117,000

Detroit, April 22—(AP)—An empty shell that may have come from the shotgun that moved down the CIO's Walter P. Reuther was checked today by police engaged in Detroit's greatest man-hunt.

William Mumford, a 16-year-old neighbor, found the empty 12-gauge shell near the curb on a street not far from Reuther's home. Witnesses told police the getaway car—a red sedan—traveled at high speed down the same street.

This indicated, police theorized, that more than one man took part in the attempt on the life of the 40-year-old CIO United Auto Workers president by firing a shotgun blast through a kitchen window.

Reuther, on a fruit juice diet in a hospital, was said by his physician to be "doing fine." His right arm was shattered by the shot.

Detectives—there are 40 of them assigned to the widespread search for the would-be killers—said the shell apparently was thrown from the right window of a car. If it came from the red sedan, they added, it might mean that another man besides the gun-handler was at the wheel.

Question Friends, Enemies
Sitting through the pile of possibilities, officers questioned dozens of the friends and enemies of the fiery union leader had made on his climb to the presidency of the CIO United Auto Workers.

But despite the offer of rewards totalling $117,000—perhaps the largest in the nation's history—real clues to the Tuesday night shooting remained rare.

Reuther himself, lying in New Grace hospital with his shattered

Ban on Liquor Ads Called Censorship

Washington, April 22—(AP)—The National Editorial Association today opposed "as a form of censorship" proposals to curb or ban liquor advertising.

"Small town newspapers are not concerned with the small loss of revenue which may be involved," Arthur D. Jenkins, publisher of the Carlyle (Ill.) Union-Banner told the senate commerce committee.

"They are concerned and I tell you they are seriously concerned with the new field of censorship that is being opened up and which will inevitably be extended to other forms of advertising."

Jenkins identified himself as a legislative adviser to the NEA, a national association of newspaper publishers and editors.

He termed the three bills before the committee "a form of censorship."

"These are stringent measures well calculated to level a deadly blow at all advertising," Jenkins told the committee. "If the principle is established that the content of advertising messages can be further censored, then a whole new area of regulation is opened."

R. E. Joyce, president of the Distilled Spirits Institute, criticized the measures as "class legislation."

Bonus Board Reports—
The Illinois Service Recognition Board yesterday mailed 2,600 bonus checks with a total valuation of $920,729 to Illinois World War II veterans. The state thus far has made bonus payments totaling $161,326.165 to 207,979 veterans in Cook county and 212,319 downstate.

Disappointing Return—
The city of Clinton, Iowa, expended the sum of $81,000 a few years ago to construct a barge dock on the bank of the Mississippi river in that city. On last year's business of 191 tons, the city received a revenue of $28.65. The docks were leased for 20 years to the Federal Barge Lines and recently vandals broke into the municipal dock and stole and damaged equipment in the building estimated at more than $1,000.

Signs Warn Motorists—
Workmen this morning started painting 20 mile per hour speed limit signs at the north end of the Galena avenue bridge. The speed limit warning is seen as a means of solving bad traffic conditions and speeding through the business district at the north end of the bridge, about which the city council has received complaints recently.

Rosiclar Is Facing Threat of High Water
Rosiclar, Ill., April 22—(AP)—The Ohio river today threatened to enter several business establishments on Rosiclar's main street after inundating the street itself.

At least three establishments were cleared of merchandise as a precautionary move.

The river has reached 50.75 feet at this Hardin county seat town of 1,200. Rosiclar residents expected a crest of up to 51.8 feet by tomorrow or Saturday.

The river crested in the 1913 flood with a 60.8 foot reading on the Rosiclar gauge; in 1937 with 67.1, and in 1945 with 57.3.

Political News of Day in Brief; Republican Candidates Are Busy

(By The Associated Press)
Texas Democrats took a crack at President Truman's civil rights program but indicated today a party organization will back him if he wins the presidential nomination.

Alabama's Senator Sparkman, meanwhile, fanned the Dixie anti-Truman fires by renewing the boom for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

On the Republican side, Senator Robert A. Taft and Harold E. Stassen pressed their talking tour of Ohio in quest of further support in the May 4 primary. And Gov. Thomas E. Dewey picked up seven more New York state delegates to run his national total to 122.

The Texas Democratic executive committee voted 35 to 14 last night to recommend an unopposed delegation to the Philadelphia convention in July.

But the group promised to "accord full support to every nominee of the party."

Two Young 'Target' Slayers Die Today in Nashville, Tenn.

Admit Binding Benefactor to Tree and Shooting Him Eight Times

Nashville, Tenn., April 22—(AP)—Two young men convicted of the "target shooting" of Edward Sproule, Clarksville, Tenn., tobacco executive, died in the electric chair at the state penitentiary today.

James Sandusky, 20, of Nashville, was strapped into the chair at 5:20 a. m. and John Thomas Kelley, 21, of Marion, Ill., was put to death 10 minutes later.

Both youths freely admitted that they tied the Clarksville man to a tree after he had given them a lift in his car near Nashville and pumped bullets into his body after robbing him.

Convicted a month after the murder Jan. 6, 1947, the youths' attorney unsuccessfully appealed the case to the state Supreme court and then without success sought clemency from Gov. Jim McCord.

This week, through the attorney, the men offered their eyes to medical science in the hope they "will help some blind person to see."

Cornies Not Removed
No arrangements were made, however, for removal of the cornies, which according to earlier plans were to be sent to a New York eye bank.

Both youths walked calmly to the death chamber after visiting with friends, officers and relatives from their adjacent death cells during the night.

Sandusky and then Kelley made professions of Christian faith in

"Bargain Rate" Air Force Compromise Is Forrestal Offer

Gurney Indicates He Will Support Proposal of Defense Attorney

Washington, April 22—(AP)—The administration had a "bargain rate" air power compromise before congress today aimed at giving the country 11 more fighting groups at a cost of $481,000,000.

Secretary of Defense Forrestal whipped up the proposal in a fresh effort to keep the senate from following the lead of the house in insisting on a full 70-group air force.

Forrestal's plan calls for a 66 group program and a three-year national defense outlay of $46,000,000,000.

Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the senate armed services committee told a reporter he thinks congress should accept the Forrestal offer.

He called his committee into another closed-door session today (9:30 a. m. CST) to try to win approval for the air force program and then turn to the equally hot issues of a temporary draft and universal military training.

Switches His Strategy
Forrestal demonstrated by his compromise offer late yesterday that he can switch his strategy.

Previously he had insisted that a strengthened 55-group air force would be enough. Then some of his subordinates—Secretary of Air Sympington and a group of air force generals plunked for the 70-group program. It was rushed through the house as part of a money bill.

If only military considerations were involved, Forrestal told Gurney's committee yesterday, "The wisdom of this step cannot be questioned."

But, he added, the full 70-group plan would add another nine billion dollars to the original 11 billions asked by President Truman, instead of the extra three billions the administration has proposed since the president laid down his stop-Russia policy a month ago.

And it also might mean "allocations, rationing, price controls and a host of other restrictions," the cabinet officer declared.

Senators quickly wanted to know why an increase to 70 groups would mean only $181,000,000 more.

Reactivated, Not New, Units
Forrestal explained that the new groups would not be exactly what the air force wanted that is, completely new—but reactivated units.

Ten of them would use modernized versions of the four-engine B-29 bombers which were used with great success against Japan.

The 11th new group would be made up of fighters.

Gurney, who relayed this information to reporters after the locked-door meeting with the secretary, did not go into further detail about the cost figures.

The senator did report, however, that Forrestal said total defense costs would increase to $15,000,000,000 after the $14,181,000,000 outlay next year and to $16,500,000,000 the third year.

Forrestal said his new plan calls for 53,000 additional men and officers for the regular air force but only 8,000 additional for the army. The navy and marines

More Coal Diggers Return to Pits in Response to Calls

Pittsburgh, April 22 (AP)—Approximately 200,000 more soft coal miners today answered the return-to-work call of John L. Lewis. Incomplete reports indicated at least 330,000 of the 400,000 bituminous miners are now back at work.

Work resumption was heavy in the big coal states West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Kentucky and Ohio besides Illinois, Alabama, Colorado, Virginia and Tennessee.

The rapidly shrinking list of idle now embraced these states, West Virginia, 20,000, Pennsylvania, 19,730, Kentucky, 5,000, Alabama, Virginia and Tennessee, all about 2,000, Utah, 900. Five comparatively small producing areas were unreported.

The figures, given out by union and operator sources, were rough estimates in some cases. In West Virginia, for example some mines were idle not because of the coal dispute. Fifty-five small mines were shut down in northern West Virginia because of a freight car shortage.

Predictions Are Rosy
District officers of the United Mine Workers predicted more miners would be back tomorrow and the small remainder by Monday. Tomorrow is the date for Washington sentencing of Lewis and the union on a charge of civil contempt. The government pressed the charge of failure to obey a strike-halting injunction.

The Pennsylvania anthracite field, where 2,300 miners were idle in sympathy reported only 1,000 off today. There are 8,000 hard coal miners.

A back-to-work movement which gathered force late yesterday continued full swing this morning. Over the nation, new mines resumed operations as day shifts donned lamps and went to work.

Delays in calling together local meetings for a formal vote on returning held up work resumption in many areas. Some locals won't hold such meetings until late today or over the week-end. Leaders of the United Mine Workers and operators agreed a full scale resumption by Monday was virtually certain.

Steel Production Up
Late yesterday about 125,000 miners out of the nation's 400,000 soft coal diggers were in the pits. The number was growing steadily today. Increasing supplies of coal enabled the U. S. Steel Corp. to announce operating rates were back to normal in almost every plant.

All miners were at work in Illinois and New Mexico.

Long Range House Bill Passes Senate

Washington, April 22 (AP)—The senate today passed the Taft-Ellender-Wagner long range housing bill designed to spur building in America. Passage was by a voice vote.

The senate passed the bill after adding a $268,500,000 farm housing program.

By a voice vote, the senate adopted an amendment by Senator Young (R-ND) and Russell (D-Ga) providing for a federal subsidies and loans to farmers.

This action came shortly after approval of an amendment authorizing the government to pay half the cost of houses for severely paralyzed veterans.

The farm housing program would be under direction of the agriculture department. Loans would be up to 33 years at not more than four per cent interest.

The goal of the bill is building of 15,000,000 new homes in the next 10 years.

J. I. Case Official Hits Marshall Plan

Racine, Wis., April 22—(AP)—L. R. Clausen, chairman of the board of the J. I. Case Company, said yesterday that "the whole Marshall plan should be blotted out by congress."

In an address to the Optimists club here, Clausen denounced the ERP as "an unjustified invasion of the western hemisphere."

He called on Americans to "stand up on their hind legs like he-men and demand restoration of lost liberties and traditional ways of living."

"Deprive our bureaucrats and Reds and internationalists of the financial support which makes it possible for them to try to enslave our people," he urged.

Clausen asked for the repeal of "special legislation which has been set up to create a dictatorship of labor leaders and labor racketeers" and for less government control of business.

The Case company is one of the three largest farm equipment manufacturers in the world.

International News of Day Summarized by AP's Reporters

Jews Seize Control of Haifa, Port City in All-Night Fighting

(By The Associated Press)
Jews seized control of Haifa, Palestine's rich port city, today after an all night battle which an Arab spokesman called a massacre.

The Arabs, asking the British military to mediate, declared many Arab women and children were shot trying to flee. One spokesman said "it was another Stalingrad we were not prepared for."

The Jews armed women and children were shot. Haganah, the Jewish militia, said the Arabs lost only 20 dead and the Jews four. The Jews demanded disarmament of Arab forces, an end to sniping and other guarantees.

In Washington, officials predicted President Truman would ask congress to approve use of American troops to help police Palestine if the United Nations decides to send soldiers to the Holy Land.

In Italy, Palmiro Togliatti, communist party secretary general, said the communists have no intention of using force to upset the results of the election, which showed under their Popular Front. Togliatti blamed "brutal foreign intervention" for the defeat.

Victorious Premier Alcide de Gasperi, head of the Christian Democrats, denied this, saying it was a "very grave accusation."

De Gasperi promised "last night a program to fight unemployment, raise living standards and push reforms and said he would brook no interference with it."

Struggle in Germany
The east-west struggle went on in Germany. There a Russian commission asked rigid restrictions on western allies' air traffic in and out of Berlin. These would require Americans, British and French to give 24 hours notice of flights through the international corridor, and details of planes and passengers. An American spokesman said he believed the Russians would find the rules "pretty hard to enforce."

The U. S. European recovery program was getting into full gear. Secretary of Commerce W. Averell Harriman is resigning to

Two Killed in Rock Island Co. Crashes

East Moline, Ill., April 22 (AP)—Earl Miller, 65, steward at Short Hills country club was killed last night when his automobile crashed head-on with a semi-trailer here.

Sherrard Ill., April 22 (AP)—The 17-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney La Due of Swedona, was killed near here last night when the car driven by her mother crashed into a concrete culvert.

The mother is in a Rock Island hospital for treatment of facial injuries.

Remember?

Washington, April 22 The government today dropped "Meatless Tuesday" remember it! but in a new appeal for food conservation called upon people to observe a meatless day of their own choice.

The "Meatless Tuesday" campaign was started last fall by a citizens' food committee headed by soap manufacturer Charles Luckman.

The new conservation appeal was made by the agriculture department—the agency which took over the Luckman committee activities early this year.

Italy's Whipped Communists Are Warned by Premier to Keep Place

Rome, April 22—(AP)—Premier Alcide De Gasperi warned Italy's whipped Communists today to keep their place.

Palmiro Togliatti, secretary general of the Communists, said his followers "have no intention of using force or violence" to upset the results of the election. But he charged in the Communist newspaper L'Unita that the balancing was influenced by "brutal foreign intervention" in the form of threats of atom bombs and starvation.

De Gasperi, leader of the victorious Christian Democrats who claim an absolute majority in the new Chamber of Deputies, assailed as fantastic the Communist declaration that coercion from the United States was responsible for the defeat of the Communist-led Popular Front.

De Gasperi told a news conference this was a "very grave accusation."

Settle Damage Suit Here Today; Jury Returns on Monday

The petit jury was excused until 10 a. m. Monday by Judge George C. Dixon today when a damage suit the jury was scheduled to hear was settled out of court.

The suit was brought by Harold Bielenberg, Thor Westby and Paul Wischnief against Ezra Beetz for damages and injuries allegedly sustained in an auto crash at the intersection of route 30 and the West Brooklyn spur Feb. 13, 1947.

Wischnief sought $10,500 for injuries and damage to his car, Bielenberg sought $10,000 for injuries and Westby also asked for $10,000 in the suit.

They claimed that Beetz was responsible when cars driven by him and Wischnief collided at the intersection of the two roads.

Beetz had filed a counter-suit against Wischnief for $1,000.

In their complaint, the plaintiffs, represented by the law firm of Dixon, Dyne, Bracken & Ryan, charged that Beetz, represented by Warner & Warner, who was driving north on the West Brooklyn spur, was careless, failed to stop at the intersection and did not have adequate brakes.

The plaintiffs were driving east on route 30 when the accident occurred.

Monday morning the jury will begin consideration of a complaint by the Livestock Mortgage Credit corporation vs. Keller, and Tuesday morning a suit brought by Charles H. and Leo C. Russell contesting the will of the late Mary E. Streck is scheduled for trial.

The Russells are contesting the will on the grounds that the late Mrs. Streck made bequests from her $60,000 estate in a will probated in County court while she was mentally unsound and under influence of Max F. Aughenbaugh and David G. Cole, two named as beneficiaries in the instrument.

Yesterday afternoon Judge Dixon denied a plea for continuance in the case, ordering it to trial Tuesday morning.

Body of Hit-and-Run Victim Found in Ditch

Becher, Ill., April 22—(AP)—The body of a man struck and killed by a hit-and-run motorist was found today in a ditch along route 1 south of this Will county village.

A Missouri driver's license in his pocket indicated the dead man was Hugh D. Harrington, 46, St. Louis.

Deputy Coroner Albert D. Hack said the man had died of a skull fracture. One of his shoes was found in a field 45 feet away. Glass from an automobile headlight and windshield were found on the highway. Hack said tire marks indicated a south bound automobile struck the man, but that the car had swerved in an attempt to avoid him.

Suggests Illinoisan For Cabinet Position

Washington, April 22 (AP)—Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) today asked President Truman to appoint Carl Vrooman of Bloomington, Ill., secretary of agriculture.

Vrooman accompanied Lucas to the White House to talk with Truman.

Lucas said Truman promised to consider Vrooman along with others who have been suggested.

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson is resigning next month to run for the senate in New Mexico.

Vrooman, for five years assistant secretary of agriculture under the late President Woodrow Wilson, operates a big farm near Bloomington. He has written extensively on agriculture and other problems.

Steel Denies Wage Boost; Cuts Price

Pittsburgh, April 22—(AP)—The U. S. Steel Corp. today denied a wage increase demanded by the CIO United Steelworkers and announced price cuts totalling almost $25,000,000 for its products.

The price cuts are effective May 1.

Phillip Murray, president of the CIO and the Steelworkers' union, asserted the corporation had denied "a just and much needed wage increase." His statement emphasized, however, that the union would continue to live up to a no-strike pledge in a two-year contract, reopened for wage discussion.

Benjamin F. Fairless, Steel Corporation president, declared the unspecified wage increase had been denied and the price cuts effected "in an effort to halt further advances in living costs."

Murray said in a statement: "We charge that the corporation has not negotiated in good faith on the wage issue."

"We contend that the corporation has not given adequate consideration to the immediate and pressing needs of its steel worker employees. We assert that it has not recognized the increase in the cost of living which has occurred."

Lewis May Hold Up Pension Payments For Final Decision

UMW Chief Fearful He Might Have to Pay Miners Himself

BULLETIN
Washington, April 22—(AP)—John L. Lewis today postponed a miners' welfare fund trustee meeting until Monday after his $100 monthly miners' pension ran into a court challenge.

Washington, April 22—(AP)—John L. Lewis today was reported leaning toward a delay in starting his $100 a month miners' pension fund in the face of blunt notice he might have to pay the bill himself.

Sources close to the mine leader said it is doubtful an afternoon meeting of the miners' welfare fund trustees will be held as scheduled.

Lewis presumably called the conference to adopt rules and regulations for paying $100 monthly pensions from the still untapped $32,000,000 welfare fund.

The report of a possible delay in pensions came as soft coal diggers stormed back to the pits in answer to Lewis' return-to-work call. Field estimates showed about 200,000 miners going back to work. This brought the number on the job to about 330,000 of a total of 400,000 miners.

Says Plan Is Illegal
Persons close to Senator Styles Bridges (R-NY) and Ezra Van Horn, pension fund trustees along with Lewis, echoed reports today's meeting probably would be put off. Bridges is the neutral trustee, while Van Horn represents the operators.

Van Horn served notice yesterday that Lewis and Bridges might be personally liable for any money spent from the fund under a plan Lewis and Bridges approved. Van Horn made request in a court suit in which he claimed the plan is illegal.

The Lewis-Bridges pact would provide $100 monthly pensions to miners 62 years or older.

Van Horn said the plan is illegal under the Taft-Hartley Labor Act for two main reasons:

1. Bridges never had any legal right to vote on how the money is to be spent, because the law says the employer representative is the one to do the agreeing—and Van Horn disagreed to the Lewis-Bridges plan.
2. The reason he disagreed to it was that it would pay pensions to miners for whom no contributions have been made to the fund. He said this, too, is barred by law.

Meanwhile the coal strike appeared to be waning in the face of a federal court injunction that it end. Lewis already has been fined $20,000 and his United Mine Workers union $1,400,000 for criminal contempt for failing to obey an original restraining order.

And the federal judge who did the fining, T. Alan Goldsborough, has ordered Lewis to be back in court tomorrow morning for sentencing on civil contempt of the strike-end order. There was every indication it would go hard for Lewis if his men aren't back by then.

But union leaders in the coal fields were predicting the miners would man the pits in heavy numbers today. About 300,000 out of the 400,000 were idle yesterday—even in the face of instructions from Lewis himself to go back.

The coal strike started March 15. Lewis and the miners were

U. S. Prestige Will Collapse If We Are Eased Out of Berlin

Correspondent Predicts New Red Pressure Next Fall

By HAL BOYLE
New York—(AP)—Wes Gallagher lives in what he calls the world's biggest air-conditioned prison.
The prison is Berlin, Germany. Gallagher believes that today it is the keystone of American prestige in Europe and that the Russians will exert renewed pressure to force the western allies out of the German capital before the October elections.
This man Gallagher who flew here to address the annual membership meeting of the Associated Press is a real newspaperman's newspaperman—the kind the old timers say died out long ago.
Wherever free men in the world read a free press they have seen his byline—By Wes Gallagher.
In the last eight years it has told the story of war and half-peace in 17 European countries from the first foxholes to the latest conference table.
Here is the man behind the byline.
He is a big-shouldered six foot, stubble-headed, soft-hearted Irishman with the energy of a cub police reporter, and the mind of a diplomat. He peers at people from a pair of black eyebrows as bushy as John L. Lewis' in full bloom. He has only two facial expressions—a glowering frown while he's digging out an exclusive news story, a Cheshire cat grin when he puts it on the wire.

A foe of hypocrisy and stupidity—official or otherwise—Gallagher waged a steady battle of his own throughout the war against generals who tried to use censorship to cover up their blunders.
"In the next war I'm going to have you made chief censor so you will have to do as I say," a three-star general once told him at a dinner party.
Gallagher worked him over with his eyebrows.
"I wouldn't serve under you," he said flatly. The general shut up. He was afraid one of his military guests might ask Gallagher why.
But Eisenhower, Simpson and Tooev Spatz had a personal liking for Gallagher and respected his rugged judgment. When military commanders began asking his advice on whether a "hot" story was too ticklish to release, he said bluntly.
"Tell it. You don't own the news—whether it's good or bad. If you try to suppress it, it'll blow up in your face."
Covering world crises has become routine with Gallagher, but he believes the present Berlin situation may flare into war.

"The tension has died down a little," he said. "Only 50 of the 2,500 American dependents have asked to go home."
"The trouble is that the Russian leaders have told their people so often they won the war single-handed that they've come to believe in their own propaganda."
"Allied diplomats there don't believe the Russians want war now, but they're afraid the Russians don't know how to stop short of war."
"The Russians are still determined to get us out of Berlin. They probably will make another attempt after they get the harvest in. They want to have a free hand by the October elections, however, to be able to deal with the 2,000,000 Berliners who voted against Communism last time."
"If we let the Russians run us out of town, our prestige in Europe will collapse. No European country would be willing to put up a fight."
How long could the present American garrison in Berlin hold out if some "incident" precipitated war?
"Perhaps six hours," he said. "But they might be important hours."
Just before Wes took off on his return flight to Berlin I asked him if covering eight years of world struggle had taught him anything.
"Only that nothing is more important than human freedom," he said.

U. S. Prestige Will Collapse If We Are Eased Out of Berlin

Correspondent Predicts New Red Pressure Next Fall

By HAL BOYLE
New York—(AP)—Wes Gallagher lives in what he calls "the world's biggest air-conditioned prison."

The prison is Berlin, Germany. Gallagher believes that today it is the keystone of American prestige in Europe and that the Russians will exert renewed pressure to force the western allies out of the German capital before the October elections.

This man Gallagher, who flew here to address the annual membership meeting of the Associated Press is a real "newspaperman's newspaperman"—the kind the old timers say died out long ago.

Wherever free men in the world read a free press they have seen his byline—"By Wes Gallagher." In the last eight years it has told the story of war and half-peace in 17 European countries, from the first foxholes to the latest conference table.

Here is the man behind the byline: He is a big-shouldered, six-foot, stubble-headed, soft-hearted Irishman with the energy of a cub reporter, and the mind of a diplomat. He peers at people from a pair of black eyebrows as bushy as John L. Lewis' in full bloom. He has only two facial expressions—a glowering frown while he's digging out an exclusive news story, a Cheshire cat grin when he puts it on the wire.

A foe of hypocrisy and stupidity—official or otherwise—Gallagher waged a steady battle of his own throughout the war against generals who tried to use censorship to cover up their blunders.

"In the next war I'm going to have you made chief censor so you will have to do as I say," a three-star general once told him at a dinner party.

Gallagher worked him over with his eyebrows.

"I wouldn't serve under you," he said flatly. The general shut up. He was afraid one of his military guests might ask Gallagher why.

But Eisenhower, Simpson and "Toosey" Spaatz had a personal liking for Gallagher and respected his rugged judgment. When military commanders began asking his advice on whether a "hot" story was too ticklish to release, he said bluntly:

"Tell it. You don't own the news—whether it's good or bad. If you try to suppress it, it'll blow up in your face."

Covering world crises has become routine with Gallagher, but

he believes the present Berlin situation may flare into war.

"The tension has died down a little," he said. "Only 50 of the 2,500 American dependents have asked to go home."

"The trouble is that the Russian leaders have told their people so often they won the war single-handed that they've come to believe in their own propaganda."

"Allied diplomats there don't believe the Russians want war now, but they're afraid the Russians don't know how to stop short of war."

"The Russians are still determined to get us out of Berlin. They probably will make another attempt after they get the harvest in. They want to have a free hand by the October elections, however, to be able to deal with the 2,000,000 Berliners who voted against Communism last time."

"If we let the Russians run us out of town, our prestige in Europe will collapse. No European country would be willing to put up a fight. How long could the present American garrison in Berlin hold out if some "incident" precipitated war?"

"Perhaps six hours," he said. "But they might be important hours."

Just before Wes took off on his return flight to Berlin I asked him if covering eight years of world struggle had taught him anything.

"Only that nothing is more important than human freedom," he said.

A Thought for Today

Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only. — James 2:24.

We are our own fates. Our own deeds Are our doomsmen. Man's life was made
Not for men's creeds,
But men's actions.
—Owen Meredith.

Wise Investment

A lot of people find certain kinds of publicity and advertising annoying. They may not like the numerous invitations from radio announcers to write a 25-word letter beginning "I like so-and-so because They may tire of movie stars endorsing this, that and the other. They may and do find fault with other attention-getters.

But the fact remains that publicity and advertising are potent and far-reaching educational forces. The education may only be the rudimentary matter of acquainting people with the fact that there is a product of a certain name and price that can be bought at a certain place. But at least the educational facilities are there, and their use is not limited to commerce.

Two examples of this wider use were the recent fund-raising of the American Heart Association and the similar campaign this month of the American Cancer Society. Many thought that the "Walking Man" radio contest was pretty silly. But there was nothing silly about the million and a half dollars that the contest's sponsor turned over to the heart association.

The cancer group has no "Walking Man." But this year it seems to be using broader and more varied publicity tactics than ever before. This is all to the good.
For not only will the campaign reach more people and raise more money, but it will also bring more information to more people. And money and education are the most hopeful weapons in the fight against cancer, as they are against heart disease.

The story and statistics on cancer are not pleasant reading.
But ignorance of the disease and its symptoms are more frightening and dangerous than all the disturbng literature on the subject.
Early diagnosis and treatment are usually impossible unless the patient is well enough informed to know a danger signal when he sees or feels it. And early diagnosis and treatment are all that can be done until a preventive or positive cure for cancer is found.

It will be a miracle if millions more dollars are not needed and used for research before a preventive or cure is discovered. Perhaps the key to victory over cancer lies in the largely unexplored field of atomic energy. The more money there is for explora-

WASHINGTON AS SEEN BY EDSON

Washington — (NEA) — How much the Communists had to do with the Bogota, Colombia, uprising that nearly broke up the Pan-American Conference is a moot point. The answers aren't simple.
Washington intelligence reports on the Communist movement within Colombia reveal wheels within wheels in complex labor-political deals that almost defy analysis.

The organized labor movement got it start in Colombia about 1910. Communism came some 15 to 20 years later. It was a native-born movement. Evidence of foreign leadership is almost completely lacking. Even today there is not yet positive identification for the 12 or 15 foreign agents supposed to have been seized in the Bogota riots, causing the Columbian government to threaten a break with Soviet Russia.

As in all countries, communism spread through the labor movement. There was a big strike among banana workers in 1928.
Seven years later there was another big strike among petroleum workers. Both had some Communist leadership and both were put down by pretty severe application of force. That only made communism gain strength.

The first national Confederation of Labor was formed in 1938.
Communists, now dominant in the railway, river, highway and petroleum workers' unions, have been in and out of the confederation many times. They were out in 1946, back in 1947 when in a big deal the leadership was divided between the Communists and the followers of Jorge Gaitan, the Liberal Party's virtual dictator, whose assassination led to the recent Bogota uprising. There is no evidence Gaitan was ever a Communist. But he was leader of a rowdy element in the labor unions. He worked with the Communists and he depended on their support.

Decreasing Communist Strength

The Colombian labor movement is now split along a new line.
Gaitan followers and Communists are in the old confederation (CTC) which has 150,000 mem-tion, the shorter the search is likely to be.

Meanwhile money is needed for the treatment and comfort of those who now suffer from this disease and those who will contract it while the search goes on.
There are an estimated 930,000 persons in this country who have cancer, yet there are only 1834 special cancer beds available to them in all our hospitals.

The goal of this year's American Cancer Society drive is $12,000,000.
The immediate goal of accomplishment is to cut down the steadily rising death rate from the disease which today kills one American every three minutes and which, if the present rate of increase is not checked, will be killing one every two minutes 20 years from now.

Since no one is immune to cancer, a contribution to this fund is certainly a wise investment for everyone who can afford it. And if letter-writing contests and other publicity stunts will spur those contributions, we say more power to them.

bers. Its rival is the United Workers (UTC) which claims about 100,000 members. It is more conservative and is supposed to have inspiration and leadership from the Catholic Church, which has been active in winning workers away from communism.

The Communist Party is also split. It was originally known as the Colombian Democratic Party (PCD). The new wing is the Colombian Workers' Party (PCO).
Both wings together have about 4000 members.

The highest Communist Party vote was 27,000 in 1945. In the municipal elections of 1946 the Communists polled less than 8000, as against 738,000 Liberals and 571,000 Conservatives.

At one time the Communists had six elected members of Congress. This was cut in half after the war. In 1947 the Communists lost all their seats in Congress.
Their daily paper had gone bust.
It was generally felt that their influence was decreasing.

The slain Gaitan was not considered a labor lawyer. He specialized in criminal law, for which he was self-educated in Colombia and Italy. He was born of poor parents but married into an old and rich family. He entered politics. At one time he was police director-general. That may account for the fact that 800 police refused to stop the crowds who looted Bogota after the assassination. At his death, Gaitan was president of the Senate and "Sole Chief" of the Liberal Party.

Gaitan Slated for 1950 Ticket

The Conservative Party won the 1946 election because Gaitan had refused to split the Liberal candidate. This brought on a split in the Liberal Party, but the Gaitan faction was stronger than the orthodox Liberals. Gaitan had already been designated Liberal candidate for the presidential elections of 1950. Because of his strong labor support, he had a good chance of winning.

On the basis of circumstantial evidence alone, all these factors make it seem improbable that Gaitan was killed by a Communist, though he had Communists as well as Conservative enemies.

In Labor Confederation meetings before the Bogota Conference opened, Gaitan had opposed doing anything to embarrass Pan American proceedings. The Communists had apparently wanted to follow such a course. As soon as Gaitan was slain, they did.

After the killing the rioters did not attack the Presidential Palace nor the Conservative Party headquarters as their first targets.
Instead they went after the Capitolo where Pan-American meetings were being held. Then they attacked American headquarters.
And they looted the churches, the Archbishop's palace, and the church schools and convents which are always special points of Communist attack. They left their unmistakable proof of guilt there.

Births: To Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kennedy, 422 North Hennepin avenue, a girl yesterday.

"They go mad about you, too, don't they?"

Roger looked at her. What sort of a girl was this sister of Charlotte's? Was she deliberately setting out to please him? He met her candid gray eyes and saw that she wasn't.

"You're sweet, little Patience!" he told her. "Tell me, are you often in London?"

"THREE times a week," said Patience promptly. "Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays," and then found herself wishing she hadn't told him this, because he was suggesting they should lunch again together, and somehow she wasn't altogether sure if Charlotte would like it.

Roger inquired where she could be found say around lunch time on Monday.

"In a place you'd never go to.
A luncheon around the corner from my dressmaking academy."
"And the dressmaking academy is where?"

"In Stafford Street," said Patience weakly.

Roger grinned.
"But you don't want me to be there?"

"No."
"D'you know that's the very thing that's making me quite determined that I will be."

Patience sighed. She didn't know quite how to handle this situation. Roger grinned. "Don't look so worried. Maybe I won't be after all."

He paid the bill and they left the restaurant together. Patience was aware, as she'd been as she'd entered it, of people turning to look at them. Of heads moving closer together. Roger was being recognized, of course. She was glad when they were in the quiet seclusion of a taxi.

She sat far away in her own corner, her hands folded in her lap. But in the theater it happened just the way Charlotte had warned her. His hand stretched out and took one of hers. She tried to withdraw it, but his grasp was firm. She tried harder. And then she gave it up.

After all, she asked herself, did she really mind so very much?

Libertyville Plant Hit By Big $500,000 Fire

Libertyville, Ill., April 22—(AP)—
The two story plant of Liberty-last night by a spectacular fire which was described as the worst in the city's history.

Damage was estimated at between $500,000 and $750,000. Firemen from Libertyville, Mundelein, Grayslake and Vernon township fought the blaze, which was punctuated by a series of explosions.

The fire was discovered about

Distillery Official Hits Proposal for Ad Bans

Washington, April 22—(AP)— R. E. Joyce, president of the Distilled Spirits Institute, today criticized measures aimed at curbing or banning liquor advertising as discriminatory and "class legislation."

In a statement prepared for the senate commerce committee, Joyce said:

"If it is possible to place federal restrictions upon the advertising of distilled spirits it will only be a short time when you will be requested to enact legislation which will permit the censorship of editorial and news articles in a like manner."

The committee is considering two measures to restrict the scope of liquor advertisements introduced by Senators Reed (R-Kan) and Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.). A third bill, introduced by Senator Capper (R-Kan), would, in effect, ban such advertising entirely.

Scout Contributions Over $2,200, Report

O. A. Hanke, Mt. Morris, treasurer, Blackhawk area council, Boy Scouts of America, reported this week that more than 40 individuals and corporations have contributed in excess of $2,200 to the Scout fund, which has a goal of $6,500 in sustaining memberships this year.

He urged participation in the campaign as a means of "a rich, challenging, inspiring, stimulating program to the 4,000 nine to 18 year old Cubs and Scouts of the Blackhawk area council."

These Scouts are spread over the six county area embracing Lee, Ogle, Whiteside, Boone, McHenry and Winnebago counties and are under the guidance of five professional Scouters and 1,371 volunteer adult leaders.

A budget of $44,000 is required to finance the program, he revealed, at least $6,500 to come through sustaining memberships, both individual ($25) and corporation ($100).

Homer Does Some "Back-Seat Sewing!"

Homer Bentley's missus was working on her new sewing machine, when Homer comes in, draws up a chair, and starts talking:
"Don't you think you're running too fast?" he says. "Slow down!
Watch out! Be careful!"

When the missus finally turns with murder in her eyes, Homer says goodnaturedly: "I thought you might like a little help, dear—like you help me drive the car."

The missus can't help but burst out laughing—and they settle what might have been a quarrel over a friendly glass of beer. The missus agrees to give up back-seat driving and nagging Homer about ashes on the rug. Homer agrees to quit criticizing Sarah's taste for flowery hats and parsley salad.

From where I sit, the key to getting on together is meeting every issue half way—and overlooking any petty differences in tastes—whether these tastes apply to beer or flowery-looking hats!

THE STORY: Patience Mend, primarily brought up by two maiden aunts, is in love with Paul Taylor, whom her aunts have for-bidden her to see because they have never been properly introduced. Charlotte, Patience's twin sister whom she has not seen since childhood, is a stage star rehearsing a show in London.
Charlotte is determined Patience shall have some fun. She invites her up to London for a day, dresses her smartly from her own wardrobe. They are to lunch with Roger Dickson, popular actor and Charlotte's boyfriend. Charlotte jokingly begs Patience not to take Roger away from her. At the last minute, Charlotte is invited to lunch with Dwight Breeden, movie producer. She can't turn him down. Patience, shy and frightened, is left to meet Roger alone.

XIII

THE lift-boy swung open the door of the lift. She stepped inside and felt the breath rise swiftly in her body as it sped downwards.

And now the door was swinging open again. She saw Roger Dickson immediately, recognizing him from his photograph. She saw him look at her, his face lighting up, and then instantly a puzzled expression came over it.

"Mr. Dickson?"

He stared at her.

"You are and yet you aren't!"

"I'm Patience. Charlotte's sister."

"Sakes alive! For a moment I thought you were Charlotte. I'd no idea you were going to be so much alike."

Patience handed him the letter.
"Charlotte's had to go off unexpectedly to lunch with a Mr.
Breeden."

"The devil she has!"

"She's explained it all in there."

Roger grinned. "I take it you and I are lunching together?"

Patience felt hot color creeping up her cheeks.

"If that's all right with you, Mr.
Dickson."

"It's wonderful." He put his hand at her elbow and led her toward the lounge, and into the restaurant. He found a table for two.

"Cigaret?"

"No, thank you." She smiled at him. "Wouldn't you like to read Charlotte's note?"

He took it out of his pocket.
He smiled as he glanced at the hastily written lines. They were typically Charlotte. "Though I adore you, darling, I simply daren't let this opportunity slip through my fingers. But I'll do my damnedest to meet you at the theater. In the meantime—take great care of Patience. There's only one of her.
I swear, in the whole of England and I think she's rather sweet.
So will you I've a feeling. Only, darling, don't think her too sweet or I'm not going to like it."

ROGER put the letter back in its envelope. "Now, tell me about yourself," he said to Patience, preparing himself to listen politely to the story of her life. To his astonishment, he found that he was extraordinarily interested by it.

"So until last week you'd not seen Charlotte for years?"

"No. Didn't she tell you?"

She had, he remembered, but he'd not taken much notice. A twin sister buried in the country hadn't sounded to him of any great importance. Now it would seem that beside the sister, who was assumed as pretty as paint, there were two maiden aunts.

"We're all awfully eager to see Charlotte on the stage," said Patience, finding Roger Dickson not half so terrifying as she'd imagined. "I suppose she's very good."

"Oh yes, she's got what it takes."

"What does it take?" asked Patience interestedly.

"Well, you know what I mean.
She's got wide appeal. She's lovely to look at and she dances like an angel. People go mad about her."

"She's wonderful." He put his hand at her elbow and led her

Commies Suffer Serious Defeat in Italian Elections

De Gasperi Victory Puts Italy in Western Allies Camp

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(Ap Foreign Affairs Analyst)
Anti-Communist forces appear to have won a smashing victory for freedom in the Italian national elections—a victory likely to have a far-reaching influence on the cold war between Russia and the democracies.

The returns aren't complete at this writing, but Premier Alcide De Gasperi's Christian Democrats and other right wing parties have sufficient lead so that Vice Premier Saragat has announced "the Communists will not be admitted into Italy's new government." If that proves to be true it will represent a sensational defeat for the numerically greatest Communist party outside Russia. Saragat, head of the anti-Red Socialists, interpreted the upset thus:

"The Italian election means a rebirth of democracy in Europe. The victory of democratic forces is a great setback to Russia and Communist plans for expansion. Italy is now a part of western Europe and not of the Balkans."

That's what we like to read, but let's temper our exultation with a bit of caution. Even if final returns bear out the present estimate, we mustn't overlook this: Until Italy's first full-plledged post-war parliament meets next month and elects a new president there will be danger of a Bolshevik revolt. Communist leader Togliatti has promised that the Reds won't use force—but observers aren't making any bets on such assurance. Saragat himself warns that "the election doesn't mean the final defeat of Communism in Italy," adding: "This is more difficult because the Communists cannot be fought by police measures, but only through social measures. The Communist party will remain strong here as it is today in France."

However, if present returns bear out their promise, Bolshevism has been soundly thrashed in the first big showdown outside Russia's eastern European zone where the Reds have imposed their will by force. Communism has been thrust down unwilling throats in the Soviet domain, but Italy has had the strength to resist it despite the chaotic condition in which the war left her. As Premier De Gasperi said, the country just wouldn't "be Bolshevized."

That's mighty encouragement for the rest of western Europe—and for the countries of the western hemisphere where the Reds are boring in through their fifth columnists. Italy has given a fine exhibition of courage.

So we now see Italy, in spirit at least, "a part of western Europe and not of the Balkans." This means that the peninsula (barring a Communist rebellion) is taking its place beside the other nations which have banded together under the flag of the Marshall plan to battle Communist aggression.

Naturally the promises of the American program have had much to do with persuading the Italian people to revolt against Communism. And, as this column pointed out in advance, the Vatican has played a major role in sending voters to the polls.

Italy is now nearer real freedom than she has been since Mussolini took over and inaugurated police rule in 1922. If she now can consolidate her victory over Bolshevism, she will become a vital base for the forces of democracy. She guards the southern flank of western Europe.

This encourages the belief that

Communism may be held along its present line through central Europe. If the Reds can be stopped there, it will be a powerful deterrent to another World war.

More than two-thirds of the 805 million dollars which the American people spent on reading matter in 1940 was spent for newspapers and magazines. The remainder was chiefly for books and maps.

Pekin, Ill., April 22—(AP)—A prison sentence of 13 to 14 years has been imposed on Harry Brustin, who pleaded guilty yesterday to the fatal shooting of an elderly farmer.

The 41 year old prisoner was charged with manslaughter in the death of George Coorts. The farmer was slain by a shotgun blast fired through the window of his home near Dillon. Circuit Judge Joseph E. Daily said Brustin was "very fortunate" that he was indicted for manslaughter when "it could have been murder."

Two Fire Calls Yesterday
A burning pile of lumber, ignited from a grass fire, was brought under control about 3 p. m. yesterday at 619 North Jefferson avenue by the Dixon fire department. The lumber is owned by K. A. Ruby. At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon a roof fire at the Charles Williams residence on Franklin Grove road was extinguished.

Reagans Reconciled
Actor Ronald Reagan, former Dixontite, said in Hollywood today that he and his wife, actress Jane Wyman, have reconciled. The Associated Press reports. Domestic difficulties led to what they called a trial separation which began Feb. 8 but Reagan said they have smoothed their differences and he has returned home. The Reagans were married Jan. 26, 1940, and have two children, Maureen, seven, and Michael, three.

Boiler Driver Indicted
George Tinsley, of Clinton, Iowa, driver-salesman for the Belier's Iowa Baking Co., who last January disappeared while on duty, was indicted by the grand jury Tuesday morning at Clinton on charges of larceny as bailer. Tinsley was reported to have surrendered himself recently to Detroit, Mich., police. The bakery truck was found abandoned on state route 92, west of Normandy by members of the Sterling district state highway police force a few days after his disappearance.

Something New in Showers
An innovation in "showers" is reported to have been "perpetrated" recently by a group of lady patrons of Peter Piper's when they made their appearance for a meal carrying a big box, which the presented to Mr. Piper with much ado. The genial and intrigued host finally yielded to the young ladies' entreaties and opened the package. It contained the "makings" of a shower for the four Schnauzer puppies which recently arrived at the Piper kennels.

Burglars Force Way Into Pearl Postoffice
Pearl, Ill., April 22—(AP)—Burglars forced the front door of the Pearl postoffice and broke open the safe last night or early this morning. Postmaster Russell Thornton reported.

Thornton said the loss could not be determined until postal inspectors from East St. Louis completed an investigation. The building interior was thoroughly ransacked, Thornton said.

Pearl is a Pike county town of about 500 population on the Illinois river 30 miles southwest of Jacksonville.

130,000 French Miners Reported on Strike
Lille, France, April 22—(AP)—One hundred and thirty thousand miners were reported on strike today in France's northern coal fields.

The walkout began yesterday in pits near Sallaumines, where 14 miners were killed in a blast Monday, and was in protest against alleged lack of safety devices in the mines.

Musk rats (marsh hares in Louisiana) prefer swimming to walking.

She Didn't Win

It's hard to believe, but Norma Genevieve didn't win the title, "Miss Surf Girl," at Sydney, Australia. But there was a good reason. An anonymous male revealed that the pretty brunette was secretly married. Since a Mrs. can't win a "Miss" title, Norma dropped out of the contest.

Penny Will Reduce Train Running Time
Philadelphia, April 22—(AP)—The running time of the Pennsylvania limited between Chicago and New York will be shortened 35 minutes when the Pennsylvania railroad readjusts its schedule to conform with daylight saving time Sunday, April 25.

The running time of the St. Louisan from St. Louis to New York also will be reduced 15 minutes.

Election "Memorable" For Italy, Pope Says
Rome, April 22—(AP)—Pope Pius XII, in a formal statement to the American press, said today the Italian elections "will be memorable in the annals of Italian history."

"An entire people," the Pope said, "has given proof of its grave sense of civic duty and the skies of Italy are brighter with hope."

The Pope implicitly deplored "the error" of those who voted for the Communists.

"Our own paternal heart turns, saddened by the spectacle of so many, who in their egoism or blindness stubbornly held to the path that can lead only to disaster for body and soul alike," he said.

"May He in His mercy and love, illumine their minds, so that they may see the error of their way."

The Pontiff's statement was in response to a request made to him two days ago by representatives of three American news services whom he received in private audience.

Division of Christians Alarming, Says Minister
Springfield, Ill., April 22—(AP)—The North American Christian convention was told today "there is something seriously wrong" in division of Christian worshippers into an increasing number of separate groups.

The Rev. Lee Carter Maynard of Angola, Ind., speaking before nearly 1,000 clergy and lay delegates, said "there are 256 separate religious bodies in the United States. Seventy-six of these have come into being since 1900."

"I wonder if this terrible state of division of God's people gives us real concern? The devil is an expert at factions and factions," he said.

'ERP Means War'

"The Marshall Plan means the division of Germany, the division of Europe—it means war!" declared Col. Sergei Tulpanov, propaganda chief of the Soviet military administration in Germany, speaking at a youth rally at Soviet-occupied Zeitz, Saxony. Last September, Tulpanov denounced "fascist" America as "the enemy of all Europeans."

Humanitarian
Macon, Ga., April 22—(AP)—Two municipal court deputies today were still muttering, wide-eyed, over the landlord who knew his own heart better than his agent.

The deputies, B. R. Truesdel and Dale Hartman, had gone out to collect rent from a tenant or levy on the furniture.

Tearfully, the tenant told the officers yesterday there was no rent money and her husband was in North Carolina.

At this point a stranger walked up, inquired of the trouble and promptly offered to lend the money—only he didn't have it on him.

The deputies said they drove the man to four houses before he finally was able to borrow enough to pay the rent.

Truesdel began filling out a receipt. He asked the man his name. The humanitarian was the landlord himself. The suit had been brought in his name by the real estate agent.

More Coal Diggers

great majority of the area's 56,000 miners were busy in the mines. Many of the mines still idle there were expected to be back in production by the time the night shift reports.

Other Pennsylvania areas expected anywhere from 75 to 90 per cent of their miners to be on the job today.

District UMW presidents in West Virginia waged a strong campaign to return 92,000 idle members. Only 28,000 of the state's coal diggers worked yesterday.

At Fairmont, W. Va., UMW district 31 President Cecil J. Urbaniak, took to the air waves to tell his followers "any delay on the part of the miners to comply will be damaging to John L. Lewis and to the cause of the United Mine Workers."

Reported idle in other states yesterday were: Kentucky 40,000, Alabama 18,000, Indiana 6,000.

ILLINOIS SITUATION
(By The Associated Press)

All Illinois United Mine Workers were reported back on the job today, heeding the requests of their state and national presidents.

About 15,000 of the state's estimated 22,000 UMW members were idle Tuesday in protest against the conviction of the union and president John L. Lewis for contempt of court.

Lewis and Hugh White, state president, requested the men to return to work. However, about 3,500 remained idle in southern Illinois yesterday, apparently because they had not received official orders yet. All these were reported on the job today.

right arm suspended in a traction cast, could offer few ideas.

He told Prosecutor James V. McNally that "I haven't the slightest idea" when asked who might have shot him.

It might have been, said the labor leader, "management, Communists or a screwball."

Seek Red Sedan
Following one of the scant clues, police checked all garages in the locality to find the red sedan that was seen dashing away from Reuther's house a moment after his stealthy assailant fired a shotgun blast through a window.

Police Commissioner Harry S. Toy said the fact that the car had not been found abandoned apparently proved at least one thing: that the shooting was probably done by an amateur.

"A professional would have disposed of the automobile by this time," he declared.

Reward offers flooded in. The UAW itself pledged $100,000 to the person or persons who could give information leading to the would-be-assassins. The city of Detroit offered $10,000. From the AFL International Brotherhood of Teamsters came $5,000, while $1,000 each was offered by the West Side Amalgamated local and the Michigan CIO Council.

Reds Offer Reward
The Communist party, which Reuther had bitterly fought, offered $500 along with a statement denouncing the attack as "the most desperate of a number of fascist assaults against the security and civil liberties of the American people."

In the hospital, doctors battling to save Reuther's arm said the fight appeared to have been won.

Dr. Raymond A. Sokolov, Reuther's personal physician, said the UAW president may be hospitalized for six weeks. The foremost problem, he said, is fighting infection.

Then the bone structure, shattered in seven pieces, will have to be reassembled. Whether Reuther will have full use of the arm will depend on how badly the radial nerve was damaged. This, said Sokolov, cannot be determined immediately.

George Tyler Wins Prize in Music Contest

On Saturday, April 17, 32 advanced students of the music department of North Central school journeyed to Sterling with their director, James Riewer. Upon their arrival there they attended a district competition at the Sterling High School.

North Central's band did not compete but just played in the contest for criticism, this can be explained by the fact that bands entering for the first year enter only for criticism and not for competition.

The only contestant entered by North Central in the solo division was George Tyler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cal Tyler of Dixon. A student in the eighth grade, George who plays a trombone, was entered in class C division and proved his capability by taking first division rating in that group. Schools are classified according to their size. Taking first prize makes George eligible to enter the state finals in Bloomington in May.

Mrs. Crawford Thomas accompanied Dixon's winner.

BOWLERS GUESTS AT PARTIES
On April 9, the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary and the Lady Bugs afternoon bowling leagues closed with the Lady Bugs No. 2 winning first place.

April 14, a banquet was held at the Rainbow Inn and officers for the coming season were elected. Elected to hold office for the following year were President, Esther Shelton, Vice President, Grace Plock and Secretary-Treasurer, Helen Webb.

Tuesday evening Mrs. John Thomas, one of the lady bug keepers, entertained at her new home. The time was spent for the most part in admiring the fine new home.

Attending the party were Orpha Cruse, Evelyn Roop, Marie Bay, Caroline Bay, Mag McConnell, Dorothy Welch, Irene Thomas, Gert Campbell, Nona Howard, Esther Shelton and Ruth Ramsey.

The strike ran full blast for four weeks. Lewis and Van Horn finally agreed on Senator Bridges as the "neutral trustee" for the fund and on April 12 the Bridges-Lewis plan was announced.

Since then, as many as two-thirds of the miners have worked now and then but coal production has not returned to anything near normal.

Margaret Wagner Bride on Sunday

At a lovely spring wedding at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon, April 18, Margaret Jean Wagner, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Wagner, and Wayne C. Shaulis, son of Mrs. Ruth Shaulis, were united in marriage at the Immanuel Lutheran church. Snapdragons and stock in spring colors decorated the palm-banked altar. The bride's father heard the vows.

Before the ceremony, a prelude of nuptial music was played by Mrs. Vernon Bashaw, sister of the bride. Vocalists were Mr. and Mrs. Billy Gamble who sang "Because" just before the processional. Mrs. Gamble sang Melott's "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony.

To the strains of the Bridal March from Lohengrin the bride and her attendants entered the sanctuary. Ivory white satin formed the bride's gown which was designed with a princess bodice and sweetheart neckline. Long sleeves came to a point at the wrist and her long, full skirt, with its train, draped from a dirndle waistline. Her fingertip veil was adorned with a tulle of pearl or-angeblossoms. A string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, was her only jewelry. A shower bouquet of white iris, stephanotis and ornithogalum was carried by the bride.

Elizabeth Wagner attended her sister as bridesmaid, wearing an orchid taffeta gown, designed with short puffed sleeves, princess bodice and very full skirt. Her bouquet was of light burgundy carnations with a center of deep violet stocks.

Court Hears Claim of $30,267 Against Physicians' Estate

Chicago, April 22—(AP)—A probate judge heard testimony today that a former Mattoon physician planned to provide for Margaret Dooley of Mattoon "because she is the only one to whom I can go for advice."

Harry Hannah of Mattoon, an attorney and owner of the Tivnen insurance agency there, testified at a Probate court hearing on Miss Dooley's claim for $30,267. Miss Dooley contends the money is due her for managing without pay the oil lands and farm property of the late Dr. Richard J. Tivnen.

Dr. Tivnen, who died in 1946, left an estate valued at $250,000. Two nieces are opposing Miss Dooley's claim in the hearing before Judge William F. Waugh. Two other claims brought by former women employees of the physician will be heard later.

Hannah testified that Dr. Tivnen told him in 1945 of his plans to care for Miss Dooley.

Hannah quoted the physician as saying "I want to make some provision for my brother's widow and notwithstanding that his two daughters (the two nieces) had not been too friendly to me, I want to provide for them too."

"I want to take care of Margaret Dooley because she is the only one to whom I can go for advice, in whom I have confidence and who has done a great many things for me."

Hannah also told the court that he often saw Dr. Tivnen consulting with Miss Dooley in her office and that they sometimes worked there as late as 10 or 11 o'clock at night.

Miss Dooley will not be allowed to testify because a claimant cannot take the stand in an estate case. She said outside of court that she worked on Tivnen's records for about 26 years. From 1928 until his death she did all his Mattoon business work, she said.

The two nieces who are contesting the claim are Mrs. Ruth Briggs of Mattoon and Mrs. Rosalind Scales of Miami Beach, Fla.

Former Partner in Dixon Transit Co. Faces Prosecution

Lawrence Bailey of Freeport Defendant in Confidence Game Action

Lawrence D. Bailey, Freeport, one of the former owners of the Dixon Transit Company, yesterday surrendered to authorities in Rockford after being sought since Saturday by Winnebago county authorities on a confidence game charge.

Bailey and P. J. McDonald, also of Freeport, who was also an owner in the bus company here until several weeks ago, are charged by the Stone Loan company, Rockford finance firm, with borrowing money on conditional sales contracts purportedly covering automobiles they owned.

The engine and serial numbers given in the pacts were false, however, the company charged, and the men did not own cars bearing such numbers.

Released on Bond
The men are owners of the bankrupt Auto Mart, Inc., Freeport. Bailey was released late yesterday afternoon after posting $2,500 bond. McDonald, arrested in Freeport last Saturday, is at liberty under a similar bond.

McDonald is charged with obtaining $1,900 from the loan company in the deal and Bailey with getting $2,400.

Creditors of the Auto Mart threw the firm into bankruptcy several weeks ago and its affairs now are in the hands of a receiver while John Devine, referee in bankruptcy, conducts a hearing into its financial condition.

In listing the company's assets and liabilities, Bailey and McDonald placed the former at approximately $270,000 and the latter at $275,000. Attorneys for creditors have declared that the assets would not bring this amount in cash.

Bailey returned to Freeport from Rockford before Stephenson county authorities were notified of his surrender, and was taken into custody there shortly before 9 p. m. by Deputy Sheriffs G. D. Shoemaker and Herbert Humphrey. After checking with the Winnebago county sheriff's office, they released him.

Alcohol Plants Could Aid Liquor Industry

Washington, April 22—(AP)—Rep. Ellsworth (R-Ore.) said today the Springfield, Ore., alcohol from wood waste plant can make alcohol for use in whisky but he would rather it be put to some other use.

Dr. Robert S. Aires of the Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn told the American Chemical society Tuesday a plant which can make 10,000,000 gallons of ethyl alcohol a year from sawdust. He said that is enough for 25,000,000 gallons of whisky.

This alcohol, he said, is just as good for making blended whisky as alcohol made from grain.

Ellsworth said Dr. Aires undoubtedly was referring to the Springfield plant, built by the war production board at a cost of $3,000,000 to the government. It has stopped operation and the War Assets administration has it up for sale on expiration May 8 of the president's freeze of all war plants.

Play Brings Serious Injury to Girl of 12

Boston, April 22—(AP)—A 12-year-old girl, who became impaired on a picket fence in a six-foot drop from a garage roof, was reported in a critical condition today at City hospital.

Physicians said one of the pickets penetrated the lower abdomen of Alice Marie Fournier.

The girl was playing "spunk the leader" on top of the roof with playmates when passing boys shouted the garage owner was coming.

The frightened girl, misjudging

the distance from the roof to the fence, dropped on the pickets. Playmates pulled her off.

Oklahoma Attorney Set for ECA Place

Washington, April 22—(AP)—Jess Larson, Oklahoma lawyer and War Assets chief, is rated a "good bet" by officials for the No. 3 spot in the new Economic Cooperation Administration.

Secretary of Commerce W. Averell Harriman is resigning his cabinet post to take the No. 2 ECA job today. He will be this country's ambassador-at-large to the 16 nations taking part in the $5,300,000,000 European recovery program.

That White House announcement surprised Capitol Hill. But there were no predictions that the senate would delay long in confirming Harriman's nomination.

Larson was mentioned as a possible choice for the remaining top spot under ECA Chief Paul G. Hoffman—deputy administrator at $17,500 a year. Larson hasn't indicated publicly whether he would accept if the position were offered.

Meantime ECA prepared to announce a new multi-million dollar allotment of food and fuel for Europe. Hoffman already has authorized purchases of $58,301,-

000 in the two weeks of ECA's existence. The new allotment, it was reported, will include the first ECA authorization for Great Britain. England has been assigned a $1,324,000,000 share of the first-year foreign aid funds.

Truman Likely to Ask Troops' Use Within Palestine

Austin's Statement From UN Session Draws Quick Criticism

Washington, April 22—(AP)—Administration officials predicted today that President Truman will ask congress to approve any use of American troops to police Palestine.

This apparently does not rule out the chance that the president might in an extreme emergency, order limited forces into the Holy Land to protect American lives and property.

Officials are deeply concerned, lest Arab-Jewish fighting flare on an even larger scale next month when the British start withdrawing their troops.

Warren R. Austin, American delegate, told the United Nations special assembly session on Palestine Tuesday that the United States is prepared to send troops to the Holy Land to support a trusteeship government on two conditions:

Question Authority

First, other nations must also provide forces; second, Arabs and Jews must agree to a truce.

In Washington, this promptly raised a question as to the president's authority to use American armed forces. Austin's statement was criticized in the house yesterday as making a commitment in violation of the law giving this government the right to membership in the United Nations.

This law authorized the president to negotiate agreements with other UN members for an international police force. These agreements would then be subject to congressional approval. But the agreements never have been made because of the split between Russia and the western powers.

Point to Commitments

Administration legal authorities are understood to have advised the White House that nothing in the law prevents the president from using his constitutional powers as director of American foreign policy and commander-in-chief of the armed forces.

The position of the administration therefore is said to be that Truman has the right to send troops wherever he may consider it in the nation's interest to do so.

Undersecretary of State Lovett told a news conference yesterday that when Austin made his statement to the UN he was, in effect, recognizing obligations which this country already has under the charter.

As a political matter, however, administration policy makers apparently have decided that the best course to follow, if troops are requested by the UN, is to place the issue before congress with an appeal for prompt approval.

Mine Disasters May Be Due to Weather, Scientist Believes

By FRANK CARRY

Associated Press Science Reporter

Washington, April 22—(AP)—Mine disasters may be caused by the weather, a Pennsylvania scientist said today.

Dr. Charles L. Hosler of Pennsylvania State College told of research which "strongly indicates a relationship between the occurrence of coal mine explosions and the pressure changes accompanying certain (weather) situations."

He said the research shows "the feasibility of forecasting periods of dangerous accumulation of combustible gas mixtures in coal mines."

Hosler prepared his report for the 29th annual meeting of the American Geophysical Union.

He said his conclusions were based on a study of weather conditions preceding all 41 major mine explosions in this country during the past 12 years.

Those disasters—including such explosions as the one at Centralia, Ill., on March 25, 1947—killed 725 men.

Records of weather stations closest to the explosion sites seem to indicate, Hosler said, that, in general, mine explosions, "occur when the (barometric) pressure is low."

Gases Produced Constantly

He said that explosive gases came from space between layers of coal. They also are being produced constantly by chemical changes within the coal itself.

Hosler said his research indicates that sharp falls in barometric pressure conceivably could cause a more rapid release of gas setting up conditions for an explosion in the presence of a spark or other igniting source.

Falls in barometric pressure could be cause, Hosler said, by such conditions as the passage of cyclonic storms, or of rapidly moving cold fronts.

Same Weather Pattern

The disaster at Centralia—as well as those at Pittsburgh in January, 1938, and at Terre Haute, Ind., in April, 1947—were all accompanied by the same weather pattern, the scientist said. In all cases, the accompanying situation was a "deep cyclonic storm."

"The meteorologist can forecast such conditions," Hosler continued, "and the mine operator can caution his men working underground of the existence of danger of explosions, or can carry out other precautionary measures."

But Hosler sees one possible difficulty in a warning system.

He said that in the winter time, weather conditions frequently are such that frequent warning would have to be issued.

This, he added, "might destroy their value as a preventative measure."

Illinois Broadcasters Form an Association

Springfield, Ill., April 22—(AP)—A new organization, the Illinois Broadcasters Association, has been set up with Frank R. Mills of radio station WDWB, Champaign, as president.

Radio men formed the association and adopted a constitution and by-laws at a statewide meeting yesterday. Mills was elected president, Robert B. Jones, Jr., WIRL, Peoria, vice president, and Walt Emmerson, WENR, Chicago, secretary-treasurer.

Named to the executive committee were: Art Harre, WJJD, Chicago; Oscar Hirsch, WKRO, Cairo; Leslie C. Johnson, WHBP, Rock Island, and Oliver Keller, WTAX, Springfield. The three officers also are members.

The constitution says the association's purpose is to promote closer cooperation among members and "to protect its members in every lawful and proper manner from injustices and unjust exactions."

Rigid Air Travel Rules Offered by Reds Over Berlin

Throw Blame for Crash on British; Try to End Big Council

Berlin, April 22—(AP)—A Russian commission recommended rigid new restrictions today on air traffic of the western allies in aid of Berlin.

The six-man commission, set up to investigate a British-Russian plane collision, urged that the Soviet commander, Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky:

(1) Require that the Americans, British and French give 24 hours' notice of their flights through corridors over the Russian occupation zone, with "details about the planes and their passengers."

(2) Prohibit those allies from making any corridor flight by night, in clouds, in the stratosphere or under other circumstances "in which the plane cannot be seen from the ground."

Ask British to Pay

The commission said only such "strict regulations" could prevent a repetition of accidents like the April 5 crash here between a British Viking transport and a Soviet Yak-3 fighter. The collision killed 12 Britons, two Americans, and the Russian pilot.

The Russian report, which took up a full page in the official Soviet newspaper Tagliche Rundschau, blamed a British violation of air safety regulations for the accident. It said the British should be made to pay indemnities for the plane and to the dead pilot's family.

The British already had held their own investigation, blamed the Russians for the crash and said they would ask indemnities. Efforts toward a joint investigation had failed.

The latest Russian move came as some top American officials said they believe the Russians intend to kill Berlin's allied kommandantura, only four-power organization still functioning here.

The Russians Tuesday proposed that henceforth kommandantura meetings be scheduled only from one session to the next, rather than the customary month in advance.

"That would give them an excuse to reduce the number of meetings by claiming they could not show up," one American official commented today. "The result might be first a crippling process and then—through a creeping paralysis or whenever they were ready to make the break—killing the kommandantura altogether."

Recommendations like those proposed by the Soviet air inquiry commission previously had been presented by the Russians in the allied control authority. They were rejected.

No British Comment

The manner in which the Russians renewed the proposals now indicated they might try to enforce them without seeking an inter-allied agreement.

The commission claimed the flight regulations were necessary especially because travel in the air corridors has increased greatly since the Russians laid restrictions on the allies' land transport a few weeks ago, blocking travel and supply heating east vs. west tension to fever pitch.

The report said the transport emerged from a cloud and rammed the Russian Yak in the rear as the fighter was preparing to land at Dallgow airport.

While wreckage of the fighter lay in British territory, the report said, it was manipulated so as "to give the false impression the Soviet plane did not have its landing gear down."

British comment on this was not immediately available.

Negotiating World Shown Way to Sure Relief by Speaker

John S. Sammons, C. S. Is Lecturer in Dixon on Christian Science

A world negotiating, temporizing, and appealing in search for a remedy for human unrest can find progressive relief and final healing through a scientific understanding of God, declared John S. Sammons, C. S., in a public lecture on Christian Science here.

Mr. Sammons, a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts spoke under the auspices of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Dixon, his subject being "Christian Science: The Revelation of God's Infinite Goodness."

The lecturer spoke in part as follows:

Christian Science is the practical solution for the problems of mankind. Every day in the lives of individuals in this land and in many other lands this fact is being demonstrated. Those who have experienced the ministrations of this Science find sickness giving away to health, longevity increasing, and the infinitude of the divine Mind God, replacing the narrow outlook of material sense. To those who understand Christian Science, man's primitive and natural state of well-being is reappearing. The heaven of divine Science is at work in human consciousness. The spiritualizing and harmonizing force of Truth is irresistibly impelling toward the realization and demonstration that and the universe are spiritual, are at one with the creator, and are moving uninterceptedly in perfect accord with Him. God is good; and all that has real existence or true being manifests God's goodness.

God Is Good

On page 286 of the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, we find the marginal heading, "Goodness a portion of God," and in the accompanying paragraph Mrs. Eddy tells us, "In the Saxon and twenty other tongues good is the term for God." One does not journey far in his study of Christian Science before learning that an understanding of God is foundational to all subsequent revelation and practice.

Spiritual Qualities Exemplified

The concept of God as good is one that is simple and easily understood. The one God who is wholly good is good in all that He is and does. A God that is good is a God that loves and is lovable. His attributes those spiritual qualities referred to by Mrs. Eddy as "justice, mercy, wisdom, goodness and so on" (ibid., p. 465). These are all qualities identified with Christian aspirations and which followers of the Master strive to exemplify. To the extent that these qualities are exemplified, to that extent is God exemplified—brought into our experience; through this exemplification He becomes an integral intimate part of our daily life. Mrs. Eddy says, "Mortals suppose that they can live without goodness, when God is good and the only real Life" (ibid., p. 328).

Many of the terms for God used in Christian Science are of like significance and impart to those found in the King James Version of the Bible. This is the Bible that is quite generally used by English-speaking Protestant Christians. Mrs. Eddy in speaking of her studies, coincident with her discovery and subsequent revelation, said "The Bible has been by only authority. I have had no other guide in 'the straight and narrow way' of Truth" (Science and Health, p. 136).

Vandenberg Winner in Mock College Convention

Lexington, Va. April 22—(AP)—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan today had the endorsement of Washington and Lee university's mock Republican national convention for the presidency of the United States.

Senator Vandenberg was nominated unanimously on the ninth ballot of the traditional affair last night. Senator Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts won the vice-presidential nomination on the first ballot in a unanimous vote.

Cincinnati Lawyer to Truman Cabinet

Washington, April 22—(AP)—President Truman moved swiftly today to avoid a gap in his cabinet. He picked former Ambassador Charles Sawyer to replace W. Averell Harriman as secretary of commerce.

Truman offered the post to Sawyer a few hours after Harriman late yesterday accepted appointment as "acting ambassador" for the European recovery program. Harriman's nomination goes to the senate today.

High administration officials, who declined to be quoted by name, said Sawyer's formal nomination will be announced soon.

The 61-year-old Cincinnati lawyer has been a frequent White House caller.

The same administration authorities said Truman also hopes to decide on a new secretary of agriculture before Clinton P. Anderson steps out next month to run for the Democratic senatorial nomination in New Mexico.

They said the president has given no indication whom he has in mind for the cabinet job.

Sawyer, who was at his home in Cincinnati last night, declined comment on the president's offer.

Find Clue to Preventing "Blind Stagers" Disease

Chicago, April 22—(AP)—A clue toward preventing the serious, often fatal, "blind staggers" disease in sheep and cattle was reported to the American Chemical society today by Dr. I. Gordon Fels and Vernon H. Chelms of Oregon State college.

The disease is caused by poisoning from selenium, an element which gets into plants and grass from some soils. The Oregon chemists said their experiments showed that methionine, one of the amino acids of building blocks of proteins can counteract the poisonous effect. The work indicated that the selenium either destroys the methionine, or makes it useless in the animal body.

Lewis' Gains by Strike? None for Certain, Believe

UMW Treasury Thinned By Latest Fight; Pension Uncertain

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, April 22 (AP)—What did John L. Lewis gain by the coal strike and what was lost?

It isn't certain that Lewis gained anything. He supposedly won a pension for his miners. But now there's a court fight over that.

But what was lost is clear. For the one month in which no miner worked and no coal was dug this happened:

The miners lost about $106,274,000 in wages.

Their welfare fund lost between $4,000,000 and $5,200,000.

Coal not mined about 52,000,000 tons.

Those figures can be considered a minimum. The full strike lasted from mid-March to mid-April.

But in the past week many thousands of miners stayed away from work. So coal production has been spotty.

The miners' union was fined $1,400,000 for contempt of court. Lewis was fined $20,000 for contempt of court, too.

The government figures that when the mines are working full blast, the average number of men at work any given day is about 350,000.

Before their walkout, their average weekly earnings were $75.91 or $303.64 a month. For the full month of strike they lost $106,274,000 in earnings.

Under their contract with the union, mine owners pay into the miners' welfare fund 10 cents for every ton of coal mined.

From last July till mid-March, when the strike started, the owners had paid into the fund about $33,000,000.

About 13,000,000 tons of coal were dug weekly before the strike. The month's shutdown meant 52,000,000 tons not mined.

(Not all the owners had agreed to the 10-cent-a-ton royalty contract but most had.)

With 52,000,000 tons not mined—if 10 cents had been paid on every ton the loss to the miners' welfare fund would have been about $5,200,000.

(Since not all the owners pay the royalty, the minimum loss to the welfare fund was probably $4,000,000 or more.)

The $1,400,000 fine on the union is not a crushing blow. How much the union treasury has now is not known. A year ago it was reported to have $15,000,000. The union pays none of its money in strike benefits.

Lewis' fixed salary as head of the union is $25,000, plus expenses. Whether his $20,000 fine will be considered "expenses" is not known.

Lewis wanted $100 a month pension for every miner who has reached 60 years of age and worked 20 years in the mines, no matter when he reached 60 or finished his 20 years' work.

The owners said that under the Taft-Hartley labor law, passed last July no one could get the pension who hadn't been working since the contract was signed last July.

Finally Lewis accepted a plan suggested by Senator Bridges, New Hampshire Republican.

Under this any miner who finished 20 years work and reached 62 since May 29, 1946, can get a pension.

But Lewis turned down what some people think was a better plan if he had accepted it there would have been no strike at all—offered months ago.

This was a plan by Thomas E. Murray, New York businessman who, with Lewis, representing the miners, and Ezra Van Horn, representing the owners, made up a three-man board of trustees to decide on a plan.

Murray suggested $100 a month pension on a priority basis for all miners who had reached 60 and completed 20 years work since July 1, 1912.

There's a chance Lewis may not get the plan he accepted from Senator Bridges. The owners have gone into court to stop it, saying, as noted above, it's against the law.

But Lewis in other strikes has led the miners to great gains. In January 1939 the soft coal miners—the ones who were in this strike averaged earnings of $23.88 a week for an average work week of 27 hours.

By comparison, the Steelworkers' average weekly earnings in January 1939 were $28.40 for an average work week of 33 hours. In January 1948 they averaged $60.16 for 40 hours work.

New Kind of Demand Made on Tokyo City

Tokyo, April 22 (AP)—A new kind of demonstration hit Tokyo today.

Five thousand municipal workers jammed the city hall courtyard and demanded 16,000 yen ($200) as a present when they got married.

The municipal government lends its workers 3,000 yen ($60) when they marry. That, the demonstrators growled, is not enough.

Besides, they said, they do not like to pay it back.

"Buckshot" to Bring Down Snow Listed

Chicago, April 22—(AP)—Fifteen kinds of "buckshot" to bring down snow were described today by an authority on man-made weather.

This buckshot is various types of fine soil, Vincent J. Schaefer of the General Electric company research laboratory told American Chemical society.

In laboratory tests, he said, all can produce snow. But they aren't as good as "seeding" clouds with little pieces of dry ice. They do indicate that dust speckled up by volcanoes or by dust storms probably is one cause of snow. The dust particles act as seeds for the water in super-cooled clouds to form snow crystals, he said.

Among the 15 types of soil capable of producing snow in the laboratory are:

Volcanic dust from Mexico, bentonite clay from Montana, wheat soil from the state of Washington, alluvial soil from Arizona, soil from Nevada lake bed deposits, and kaolin, topaz, kyanite, and clays from Tennessee and New York.

Taverner, Mrs. Curtis Pittman. Loveland school—Mrs. Arthur Toland, Mrs. Irwin Haring.

A new theory on how rain forms was suggested by Dr. Irving Langmuir, famous G. E. scientist. It's based on cloud studies at the Mt. Washington, N. H., weather station.

The difference in the sizes of drops within a cloud caused by evaporation and condensation would lead to rain through "gravitational accretion," he said. That is, the heavier droplets would overtake smaller and slower-moving droplets, thus forming drops large enough to fall as rain.

This process speeds up rapidly as drops increase in size, Dr. Langmuir said.

Big Gas, Oil Supply in Shale Beds, Disclose

Chicago, April 22—(AP)—The United States has enough potential gasoline and oil in shale beds in the west to run its automobiles and machines for 150 years, a report to the American Chemical society estimated today.

Most of this oil-bearing shale is found in the Green river area of Colorado, Wyoming and Utah. It is estimated to contain about 300 billion barrels of shale oil, said John S. Ball, G. U. Bailey, John R. Smith, and R. A. Van Meter of the Bureau of Mines petroleum and oil-shale experiment station, Laramie, Wyo.

Gasoline from this oil probably would not cost more than a few cents a gallon above that from petroleum, they said. The cost margin might be reduced further, they added.

Youth's Play for Girl Backfires; He's Burned

Chicago, April 22—(AP)—A scheme by which Donald Yarnall, 16, hoped to gain sympathetic attention of his favorite girl literally backfired yesterday and he was seriously burned.

Joseph McGivern, also 16, said he trusted Yarnall tightly with strips of highly inflammable tape then left him in a shed at the rear of the McGivern home. The plan, Joseph explained, was to have his sister, the object of Yarnall's affections, find him in the shed and release him.

But the girl refused to go into the shed. Joseph then went back to aid his pal. In removing the tape, he accidentally knocked over a lighted candle. The tape caught fire and the flames quickly spread over Yarnall's back and legs.

Police took McGivern to the juvenile home, and Yarnall to Evangelical hospital where attendants said his burns were serious.

HOLLYWOODBY BOB THOMAS

Hollywood—Hello, this is Ralph Edwards. You have just won $25,000 worth of prizes.

If you receive such a telephone call, you can charge it up to some prankster with a warped sense of humor. The latest fad among telephone humorists is the impersonation of Edwards and other masters of give-away quiz programs.

NBC says its receives many inquiries about such bogus calls, the number increasing during the "flush" contests. The network advises listeners to discount the imposters. If an air show does call you, you'll know it: Contestants are called well before the program begins and are given a thorough examination.

Deanna Durbin is playing hide-and-seek with the press on the "Washington Girl" set. Ho hum. The political battle of the stars is about to begin. Eric Johnston reports that both major parties are planning campaign films starring movie players. He'll do nothing to stop them.

Joan Fontaine is feeling none too well on the "Kiss The Blood Off My Hands" set. What do you wanna bet she won't do the proposed comedy before the baby? The first scene in the picture has her standing on her head.

Dick Powell has despaired of getting June Allyson for "Mrs. Mike". He has been getting the runaround from her studio, MGM. Besides, she is supposed to start "Little Women" at the same time he'll be doing "Mrs. Mike". The stork rumors about the pair are untrue, Dick tells me on the "Rogue's Regiment" set.

Jane Russell is being booked for a night club tour in May. Her act will consist of song parodies. One is a hilarious version of her film career—"Oh Look What They Done To Me". Gabby Hayes beckons as he'll slow down to two westerns a year. "It gets tougher each year for me to do the stunts and hard riding," he said on "The Wrangler" set. He'll sun in Palm Springs and fish in British Columbia. With 170 westerns to his credit, 62-year-old Gabby can afford to slow down.

About half of the world's land area is uninhabitable.

Newsprint Shortage is Eased Slightly, Report

New York, April 22—(AP)—The American Newspaper Publishers' association turned its attention to the newspaper shortage yesterday, and heard that it has eased a bit in recent months.

The ANPA's general manager, Cranston Williams, told the publishers at the first session of their 62nd annual meeting that the last 12 months had improved the picture in the newspaper situation.

He told reporters later that despite this improvement most papers are "in a straitjacket."

Rep. Edward H. Jenison (R-Ill.) editor of the Paris (Ill.) Beacon News, said Alaska has great possibilities for newspaper production, but there is no immediate prospect for establishing mills there.

Jenison has just returned from a visit to Alaska.

Congress Threat to "Get Tough" Answer On Condon Records

Showdown Coming, Rep. Thomas Declares in Fight for Letter

Washington, April 23—(AP)—President Truman's try-and-get-it challenge ran into a congressional threat today to "get tough" over demands for an FBI loyalty report on Dr. Edward U. Condon.

Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ) said there will be a showdown if the administration fails to produce the document within 48 hours.

The chairman of the house un-American activities committee said that should be a reasonable time for an answer to the house resolution directing the secretary of commerce to turn over the letter.

Condon is director of the Federal Bureau of Standards, which handles research on some of the government's top military secrets. "We are going to be tough in this matter," Thomas told reporters. "There is going to be a showdown."

Truman Opposes Release
But when and how was something else again.

The house adopted the resolution yesterday, 300 to 29. At his news conference later, Mr. Truman gave no sign that he would let the FBI letter go to congress.

Truman has issued a definite order to all agencies to refuse to

National Shrine to Tolerance in Dixon Stelle Suggestion

A national Shrine to Tolerance to be erected in Dixon, probably in Oakwood cemetery, was suggested today by John Stelle, former national commander of the American Legion, before he departed from the city. In conversing with present and past commanders of Dixon post, Stelle requested that the movement be started within Dixon post, No. 12 and then submitted to the 13th district, state and national conventions of the Legion for approval.

The suggestion was made to Commander Marion Reis and past commanders Edward Jones, Sherwood Dixon and J. A. Snyder. Attorney Jones was designated to present the proposal to Dixon post at its next regular meeting when the proposal will be given consideration and if approved, the plan will be prepared for submission to the district, state and national gatherings.

In Memory of Two Men
Stelle designated Dixon as the location for the proposed shrine in memory of two outstanding figures in the Legion organization, Charles "Daddy" Schick, former state commander and the Rev. Fr. Joseph Lonergan of Menominee, Wis., well known in Dixon and a

Youths Smash Windows and Escape in Chicago

Chicago, April 23—(AP)—Three youths smashed 57 windows in nine stores today and then escaped four policemen after a mile and a half chase.

The stores are in a two mile area on Cermak road, Ashland avenue and 18th street. Police estimated damage at $3,270. They could give no explanation for the smashing.

A squad of detectives came upon the trio as they were breaking windows in a food store. The police chased the youths, who were driving a sedan, and emptied their guns at the car.

Provancher's Case Goes to Jury Today

Rockford, Ill., April 23—(AP)—The murder trial of John A. Provancher, 32, former Rockford detective, goes to the jury today in the Circuit courtroom of Judge William R. Dusher.

Provancher is accused in the death of Andrew Sorenson, Chemung, Ill., tavern owner who disappeared last Dec. 3. Sorenson's body was found in a river at Rockford Jan. 9.

Provancher did not take the stand in his own defense, nor did his attorney, James M. Brown, call any defense witnesses. In resting his case, Brown said the defense would "rest on the testimony given by prosecution witnesses."

One of the last witnesses called by the state was Daniel Dragel of the Chicago police crime laboratory. He testified that blood found on some cardboard in Provancher's car was of the same type as Sorenson's.

William Wolfe of McHenry testified for the prosecution that he did not borrow Provancher's car on the day Sorenson disappeared. Provancher was quoted by police as saying he had loaned Wolfe his car on that date.

Arab Nations Called on to Send Armies Into Palestine May 15th

Amman, Trans-Jordan, April 23—(AP)—King Abdullah urged all Arab nations to send their armies into Palestine to battle the Jews when the British give up their mandate May 15.

Trans-Jordan's monarch told reporters yesterday the Arab world must act against Zionism—the push for a Jewish homeland in the Holy Land—because "our peace and liberty are at stake."

"I call on all Arab countries," he said, "to join my army in a movement to Palestine to retain the Arab character of that country..." Abdullah's two-year-old kingdom is just east of Palestine.

Youth of Countries Helped by America Should Be Drafted

—JOHN STELLE

Suggestion Made in Talk to Lee Co. Council of American Legion

Charging that the "brass" at the nation's capital at Washington, D. C., through their selfish maneuvering, had caused the proposed universal military training program to become a political issue, John Stelle, former National Commander of the American Legion, addressing a meeting of Lee County Council, American Legion at the Elks club last night, presented a new suggestion to solve the present crises. In a prepared paper he suggested that since the United States was spending millions in European countries, that the young men of these countries should be drafted into a standing army which would form the first line of defense, and that the American youth could receive

Atomic Bomb Fourth in Destructiveness

Miami, Fla., April 23—(AP)—Ellis M. Zacharias, former naval intelligence expert, says the United States has three weapons far more powerful than the atomic bomb.

In an interview here yesterday he listed them as "bacteriological," "biological," and "climato-logical."

"Russia knows that we developed these three weapons during the war and due to the tremendous resources in the war, all of the weapons are immediately available in sufficient numbers," he said.

"The atomic bomb ranks fourth in consideration of destructiveness. The atomic bomb has a local effect while the other three are wide-spread," he added.
